I am in Kansas for one purpose, to seduce the General's daughter. I need to stop him before he sends even more men out to be slaughtered. I will sacrifice anything to protect my friends even sacrifice my own happiness. I only hope it doesn't come to that. I don't believe in love. It's just a chemical reaction that happens when two people meet and are attracted to each other.

I especially don't believe in love at first sight. That's something fabricated for television and movies. It doesn't happen in real life. The vampires are concerned that a war is brewing, and they worry it might be too late to stop it. Their only recourse is to stop the General from training more men to be sent to kill them. It's not just themselves they're protecting but the lives of so many innocents. Not suitable for those under 18.
Warning: Graphic sexual content and language.
