Imam Mohamad Jawad Chirri (1905-1994) was an Islamic theologian and lecturer, and the director and spiritual leader of the Islamic Center of America in Detroit, Michigan. He was a native of Lebanon and a graduate of the distinguished religious institute of Najaf, Iraq. Dr. Wilson H. Guertin is a scientist and a distinguished professor of psychology at the University of Florida, with broad knowledge and interest in theology and religious studies. In the sixties, after Imam Chirri moved to the USA, he and Dr. Guertin met and engaged in a correspondence in which they discussed Islam, Christianity and religion in general. This book is a detailed record of the many topics they debated.
