On the cusp of adulthood, Jenna Rossetti is still trying to work through the death of her beloved father. Afraid that she is losing her faith, she finds her only solace in her best friend Anna.

After feeling like she is starting to come to grips with her pain, her life takes a horrible turn for the worse. And then at her most vulnerable, Jenna meets the inexplicable Kyle Reed. He takes her down a dark and sensual road that she was never prepared for. Will her love for him overcome knowing what is wrong and what is right? And will she be strong enough to make that decision when everything falls apart?
