Salin's salvation lies in the hands of EARTH... Surrender Serenity... Eon's people always took care of their planet of Salin, having learned from their ancestors mistakes. When a virus ravages the female population leaving most females dead and those who survived infertile, their people search endly for a way to save their people from disappearing from existence, but nothing seems to work. Out of hope and desperate, a seer gives them one last hope, EARTH. Embracing Ember... When Ember's husband leaves her at the brink of death Ceylon must intervene to save her life.

Still grieving over the loss of his mate, he doesn't understand why this female is so important to him. She is broken, fearful and unable to trust. He is suffering, his heart broken, unable to love. Will she learn to trust? Will he learn to love? Maria's Match...

Maria shared a blissful and life-changing night with Silvius, losing her heart and gaining the baby now growing within her womb. Old hurts won't let her stay and accept that Silvius loves her...so she runs, like she always does.

Little does Maria know that she has met her match...
