Violet is a shy, introverted woman who hides behind red hair and freckles.

Xander is a strong, driven businessman who has no desire for romance. Living at opposite ends of the country means no chance of the two ever meeting. Little do they know, they have guardian angels who are determined to bring them together as the soulmates they are. Guided by their angels into finding each other online, they begin a whirlwind courtship in cyberspace. Their relationship is short-lived, however, when both are killed in a tragic accident after meeting in person. The end of their story is only the beginning, for in Heaven they are separated and faced with obstacles not even their guardians can out-manuever. If Xander can keep his dying promise to find Violet, they might stand a chance at having a Happily Eternal After.
