The young, confident, and beautifully dark-skinned Tamicka knows how to handle herself around absurdly rich and powerful men.

After all, she drives their cars for a living. But something about Mr. Stone is different. In the presence of this handsome, muscular man with a penetrating stare, Tamicka finds herself getting flustered for the first time. Now Mr. Stone has an intriguing offer for this fertile, ebony beauty—one that will fulfill her deepest fantasy. But accepting means giving more power to a man who possesses so much already. By granting his request, he'll be free to finish inside, without protection, in any way he chooses. There's only one question left for Tamicka... how bad does she want it?
