He's a rock god who leaves many broken hearts in his wake. But there's always one who is unforgettable. Cameron David is a rising star of indy rock and he's breaking hearts all over the South. He knows how to drop smooth lines on the stage and in the bedroom.

When he's denied by the one woman he actually has feelings for, even strumming his favorite song can't lift his mood.

Baton Rouge Thirty Nine news anchor Megan Price has had a couple of one-nighters with lovable crooner Cameron David. However, she's realized there is no future to be had with the promiscuous drifter and has resolved to leave him behind—far behind—as she accepts a gig at Toronto News Twelve Hearts rock and emotions roll in this contemporary novella.
